

Name: _____

Chapter 15 Vocabulary Review

Across

- 2. A toddler is a child approximately 12 to 36 months old
- 7. A lesson that the child need to know and understand.
- 9. letting children know that they have control over themselves and the choices that they make.
- 12. Want to be on their own, and get upset when they can't do what they want
- 13. differences in language processing centers of the brain.
- 15. time period between the decision to have surgery and the beginning of the surgical procedure.

Down

- 1. young children often experience a period of separation anxiety, but most children outgrow separation anxiety by about 3 years of age
- 3. Productivity is a general term in linguistics referring to the limitless ability to use language
- 4. children are playing by themselves independently of other children
- 5. a room, group of rooms, or building in which someone may live or stay.

6. cleaning up after oneself, self-feeding, carrying one's own belongings

8. parallel play can occur anywhere as long as the area is set up to encourage it

10. ability to think about the present situation.

11. the process of taking in and fully understanding information or ideas.

14. Attention is the ability to obtain and sustain appropriate attention to a task.

Word Bank

symbolic thinking
attention skills
solitary play
preoperational period
parallel

accommodation
concept temper tantrum
autonomy
receptive language

separation anxiety
productive language
self help skill
toddler
assimilation