Chapter 17: Nutrition Care

1. A trained interviewer asks the responder to recall in detail all food consumed during the previous 24 hours

2. The respondent records, at the time of consumption, the types and amounts of all foods and beverages consumed for 3 to 7 days

3. Change in bioavailability, volume of distribution, clearance, or biomarkers

4. A systematic approach to providing high-quality individualized nutrition care

5. Compatibility, solubility, stability

6. Absorption, distribution, metabolism, excretion

7. Effects

8. Responsible for evaluating the client's diet

9. Collect, classify, and synthesize client information in order to assess nutrition status

10. Number of meals eaten per day, appetite and food dislikes, presences of GI distress

A. RDN

B. Pharmacodynamic

C. Pharmaceutical

D. Physiologic outcomes

E. 24-hour food recall

F. Nutrition Assessment

G. Diet History

H. Multiple-day food record

I. Pharmacokinetic

J. Nutrition Care Process Model