

Chapter 24: Ethical and Legal Issues

Across

1. use of moral principles as a basis for defending a chosen path of action in resolving an ethical dilemma
5. general, universal guides, to action derived from basic moral truths that should be respected unless a reason exist not to
7. persons self reliance, independence, liberty, rights, privacy, individual choice, freedom of the will, and self-contained ability to decide
8. situation requiring moral judgement between two or more equally problem fraught alternatives
11. publicly displayed ethic conduct of a profession
15. belief that individuals rights provide the vital protection of life , liberty, expression, and property
17. maintenance of privacy
18. regulations established by the government and applicable to people
21. strict observance of promises or duties, loyalty to others
22. rights of individuals or groups that are established and guaranteed by law
23. standards set by individuals or groups

27. actions are right or wrong according to the morality of its action

28. each individual is protected and allowed to pursue personal projects

29. internal controls of a profession based on human values or moral principles

30. worth of actions is determined by their ends or consequences, actions are right or wrong

31. ARRT's mandatory standards of minimally acceptable professional conduct

32. manners and attitudes generally accepted by members of a profession

Down

2. care for

3. articulated statements of role morality as seen by the members of a profession

4. doing of good; kindness

6. ethical reflections that emphasize an intimate personal relationship value system that includes such virtues such as sympathy, compassion, and love

9. customs, principles, or habits of living

10. relationship that exists when two mutually dependent groups in a society recognize certain expectations of eachother and conduct their affairs accordingly

12. bodies of systematically related moral principles used to resolve ethical dilemmas

13. systematic study of rightness and wrongness of human conduct and character as known by natural reason

14. set of moral principles that are embedded in a common morality

16. obligations placed on individuals with a reason

19. justified claims that an individual can make on individuals, groups, or society

20. statements of right conduct governing individual actions

24. rights of an individual or groups that exist separately from the government

25. ethical principle that places high value on avoiding harm to others

26. gross violation of commonly held standards of decency or human rights