

Chapter 25

Across

3. The breaking of or refusal to obey laws or other governmental commands to protest and bring attention to a perceived injustice and force change

5. A military leader who governs by force, usually within a limited area.

8. A form of warfare that involves surprise attacks by small groups of fighters, including harassment of the enemy and sabotage

9. the forced separation of a race, class, or ethnic group

13. Leader of China's 1911 revolution.

14. A tax on imported goods

15. A system in which nonelected government officials are organized into specialized departments and operate according to fixed rules within a hierarchy of authority

16. limited self-government over internal matters that is granted by a large political unit to a smaller one within it

18. He led the Salt March.

19. A nonviolent campaign of civil disobedience led by Mohandas Gandhi in 1930

20. The unprovoked killing or wounding by British troops of nearly 1,500 peaceful protesters at Amritsar, Punjab in 1919

Down

1. A nation within the British Empire that controls its own domestic and foreign affairs, but is tied to Britain by allegiance to the British monarch

2. An uprising by a secret group known as the Righteous and Harmonious Fists, called "Boxers" by Westerners, that attempted to drive all foreigners from China

4. Congressan organization founded in 1885 to improve the rights and status of Indians in British colonial India.

6. A work stoppage by a large portion of the entire workforce of a locality or country

7. the body of some 1,500 appointed officials who carried out day-to-day government of British India

10. Killed Gandhi.

11. The 90-year period of British colonial rule in India that took place between 1858 and 1947

12. Person who rules a country while its monarch is too young, old, or ill to rule, or is absent

17. The year-long, 6,000-mile retreat of the Red Army and communist leaders from southeastern to northwestern China after their defeat by Nationalist forces in October 1934