

Chapter 26

Across

2. A spike-shaped structure
 9. Feeds on decaying plant and animal material
 11. Front of body
 12. Layer that lies between gastroderm and epidermis
 14. Animal with backbone
 16. Filter Feeder
 17. Inner lining of the gastrovascular cavity

18. Cell that uses flagella to move water through the sponge

20. Animal without backbone

Down

1. Eyespots that detect light
 3. Digestive chamber with single opening
 4. Cell that makes spicules
 5. Organism that feeds on animals

6. Back end of body

7. Loosely organized network of nerve cells

8. A large hole at the top of the sponge

10. Back of Body

13. Upper side of body

15. Sensory cells that help determine direction of gravity

19. Organism that feeds on plants