

Chapter 2 Vocab

Across

- 2. A situation in which the market does not distribute resources efficiently
- 8. a strategy for pollution control that involves regulations and enforcement mechanisms
- 10. the study of economics as a component of ecological systems
- 11. A tax placed on environmentally harmful activities or emissions
- 14. The amount of goods available
- 15. a subfield of economics that examines costs and benefits of various policies and regulations related to environmental degradation
- 16. A financial analysis tool used to determine the benefits provided by a project against its costs.

- 17. Statement required by Federal law from all agencies for any project using Federal funds to assess the potential affect of the new construction or development on the environment.

Down

- 1. The value that is not included in the price of a product or service.
- 3. A strategy by which organized interests seek to influence the passage of legislation by exerting direct pressure on members of the legislature.
- 4. a set of rules or a plan that is used as a guide for action.
- 5. allows businesses to buy and sell permits that entitle the bearer to emit a certain amount of pollution. The government issues these permits and caps the total amount of pollution that may be produced.

- 6. Laws, rules, and regulations related to an environmental problem that are developed, implemented, and enforced by a particular government agency.
- 7. The study of how people seek to satisfy their needs and wants by making choices
- 9. A labeling system that tells consumers which brands are made with processes that do not harm the environment.
- 12. The desire, willingness, and ability to buy a good or service
- 13. A government payment that supports a business or market