

Chapter 5- Computers

Across

- 2. virtual location on world wide web
- 6. dry powered ink used in laser printers and photocopiers
- 7. the screen
- 10. system that links all the computers together
- 11. allows documents to be copied and stored
- 14. high-speed internet connection
- 15. a device or program used to limit access to a server

16. tool that allows movement of the cursor

- 17. allows typing and contains letters, numbers and symbols
- 19. computer programs
- 20. the "brains" of the computer

Down

- 1. network that links only the computers in a single office
- 3. physical parts of a computer and its equipment
- 4. computer device that manages network resources and links computers together

5. global network of computer systems

- 8. device used to print forms and information
- 9. abbreviation for Internet service provider
- 12. allows internet use and saving data
- 13. a collection of information organized into easily searchable computer files
- 18. computer network that allows limited access to off-site users