

Chapter 6. Crimes Against Property and Habitation

Across

4. Entry into a building illegally with intent to commit a crime, especially theft.
7. The criminal act of deliberately setting fire to property.
9. The loss or giving up of something as a penalty for wrongdoing.
10. Any act that deprives an owner of property without that owner's permission and without just cause.
12. The practice of obtaining something, especially money, through force or threats.

13. The _____ Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act is a United States federal law that provides for extended criminal penalties and a civil cause of action for acts performed as part of an ongoing criminal organization.

14. The action of forging or producing a copy of a document, signature, banknote, or work of art.

Down

1. _____ theft is the deliberate use of someone else's identity, usually as a method to gain a financial advantage.

2. The _____ Crime Information Center is the United States' central database for tracking crime-related information.

3. A crime governed by state laws. It generally involves any damage, defacing, alteration, or destruction of tangible property with criminal intent.

5. Theft of personal property.

6. Theft or misappropriation of funds placed in one's trust or belonging to one's employer.

8. A defendant commits the crime of false _____ by making an intentional statement with intent to defraud the victim he obtains title to the personal property of the victim.

11. The action of taking property unlawfully from a person or place by force or threat of force.