

Name: _____

Chapter 7 Diseases

Across

- 2. A hemorrhage under the skin that is 3 centimeters in diameter or larger
- 5. Spreading inflammation and infection of the connective tissues of the skin and muscle
- 8. Bluish/purple discoloration of the skin and nails due to a decreased level of oxygen in the blood
- 11. Skin infection caused by the herpes virus
- 12. Localized, pus-containing pocket under the skin caused by a bacterial infection

- 13. Necrosis with subsequent bacterial invasion and decay

- 14. A lack of pigment in the skin, hair or iris of the eye

- 15. Any condition caused by disease or injury that results in inflammation or infection of the skin

Down

- 1. Constant pressure to a particular area of the skin restricts the blood flow to those tissues

- 3. A very firm, abnormally large scar that is bigger than the original injury

- 4. Fibrous tissue composed of collagen that forms as an injury heals

- 6. pinpoint hemorrhages in the skin from ruptured capillaries

- 7. Any benign or malignant new growth that occurs on or in the skin

- 9. Any type of skin lesion that is pink, or red, flat or raised and pruritic or non-pruritic

- 10. An autoimmune disorder in which the melanocytes are slowly destroying in irregular and enlarging areas

Word Bank

Herpes

Gangrene

Cicatrix

Cellulitis

Neoplasm

Ecchymosis

Dermatitis

Vitiligo

Cyanosis

Abscess

petechiae

Decubitus Ulcer

Albinism

Rash

Keloid