

Chapter 8 Middle Childhood

Across

- 3. The placement of special needs students to show the ability to keep up with the curriculum into a regular classroom
- 5. The act of intimidating, threatening, or gusting someone else, often over a period of time
- 10. Their proportion of body fat to lean mass (muscle, bone, and water) in a person's body

- 11. Develop mental reading disorder developmental reading disorder characterized by difficulty understanding and recognizing letters, symbols, and sentence meanings.

12. An eye condition that results in the difficulty seeing objects that are near. Also called far sightedness

13. A high amount of body fat in relation to lean body mass

Down

1. The tendency to focus on only one part of a situation

2. A chronic problem cause by a significant lack of nutrients with in a person's diet

4. Refers to food that are rich in vitamins and minerals and contain relatively few calories.

6. The ability to understand how actions can be reversed

7. The body's response when faced with pressures and demands

8. An excessive amount of body fat

9. A condition that's results in difficulty seeing objects that are far away. Also called near sightedness