

Chapter Seven- Families Within the Economic Environment

Across

2. What is it called when there is excess demand and limited supply? (page 139)
3. Who are people ages 16 years or older looking for work? (page 145)
6. What is a real or imagined choice between alternatives and possibility of rank ordering these alternatives based on happiness? (page 140)
10. What is something that is without material qualities and so not able to be touched or seen? (page 137)
11. What does it mean to replace something with another similar product or good? (page 139)
12. What is something that remains above what is used or needed? (page 139)
15. What is the quantity of something on hand or available as for use? (page 138)
16. What is the manual or automatic process of applying prices to purchase and sales order? (page 139)
18. What is the increase in unemployment that occurs as the economy goes into a slowdown? (page 145)

20. What is a distinctive often habitual manner or way? (page 143)
21. What is an increase in the supply of currency or credit relative to the availability of goods and service, resulting in higher prices? (page 152)
25. What does it mean to trade by exchanging one commodity for another? (page 151)
27. What is the quantity of a commodity or service wanted at a specified price and time? (page 138)
28. Who are workers who have decided to leave one job and look for another? (page 145)
29. What is a social science concerned chiefly with description and analysis of the production of goods? (page 137)
30. What is an assets ability to be converted through an action of buying or selling? (page 151)

Down

1. What is the promotion of the consumer's interest? (page 135)
4. What is a group of individuals occupying a housing unit? (page 154)
5. What is unemployment caused by basic changes in the overall economy? (page 145)

7. What is the percentage of people seeking employment but without current work? (page 145)
8. What is the adoption of industrial methods of production and manufacturing by a country or group? (page 136)
9. What is having a practical application or serving a useful purpose? (page 140)
13. What does it mean to make fit, suitable, or congruous? (page 139)
14. What are any interdependent or mutually beneficial relationships between groups? (page 137)
17. What is an opportunity forgone? (page 148)
19. What is a good or token that functions as a medium of exchange? (page 150)
22. What is something that is in circulation as a medium of exchange? (page 150)
23. What is a personal preference or liking? (page 143)
24. What is a good that have a life span of 3 or more years? (page 156)
26. What is the non-material equivalent of a good? (page 134)