

Chapters 24 - 27

Across

3. lacking distinctive or interesting features or characteristics. Word that describes Ann Taylor's dog.

6. forced or oblige to do something. Atticus always tells them to hold their heads high.

7. relating to the commissioning or preparing of material for publication. Something that was written about Tom Robinson's death

8. Dirty, unpleasant, a result of poverty or neglect. Also, a word that describes the lives of the Munra tribe.

11. a thin decorative covering of fine wood applied to a coarser wood or other material.

13. to be filled with astonishment

14. to be false or fake. Shows how Miss Gates thinks about publications such as "the grit paper"

15. A religion. Also shows in chapter 24 they are in a religious community

16. feeling or showing tiredness, especially as a result of excessive exertion or lack of sleep. Also, a description word to describe Aunt Alexandra when she finds out about Tom Robinson's death.

17. a sharp localizing pain. Jem felt a twinge of remorse when passing Boo Radley's house because he has empathy for Boo.

Down

1. to steal something. Ms. Tutti was sure it was the fur sellers who came to town and did this to her furniture.

2. a system of government by the whole population or all the eligible members of a state, typically through elected representatives. Miss Gates writes in capitals to teach the class what society they live in

4. To break off a meeting, legal case, or game with intentions to resume it later.

5. Delicately small and pretty.

9. the state of being famous or well known for some bad quality or deed. Word that Scout uses to describe how Mr. Ewells was known until he lost his job.

10. a troublesome wild animal. Also, the insect at the start of 25 that Scout attempts to kill to show her lack of empathy.

12. nauseated / feeling sick. Also, a word that describes how Scout feels every time she heard the name Ewell.