

Check Definitions

Across

4. a check that is guaranteed by a bank.

5. When a check is restricted to only being able to be deposited

9. An account that has a consistent balance in which the banks can then use to loan out there money

11. When a check is stated to the order of then the persons name and your signature

12. checking account that requires no minimum balance but in which a small charge is made for each check issued or drawn and for monthly maintenance

13. the action of endorsing a check or bill of exchange.

Down

1. a printed order for payment of a specified sum, issued by a bank or post office

2. An account where the money in your account will slowly over time gain interest leaving you with more money in the account

3. a signature by someone who creates a financial instrument, such as a check

6. a bank account held by more than one person, each individual having the right to deposit and withdraw funds.

7. a process that explains the difference on a specified date between the bank balance shown in an organization's bank statement

8. a request made to a financial institution to cancel a check or payment that has not yet been processed

10. a check that is certified by the bank but comes out of the banks funds