

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chemical Waving

Across

- 2. What length of hair was Charles Nessler's heat permanent waving machine suitable for?
- 6. Hair is wrapped around perm rods chosen to reflect desired what?
- 8. What type of comb is used to part off sections of hair and individual bases when wrapping?
- 9. What technique uses one end paper folded in half?

10. What refers to the amount of hair follicles per square inch?

- 11. Barrier cream is also known as?
- 12. Positioning texture in one or more specific areas or zones of the head, or along only a certain portion of the hairstrand is called:

Down

1. What are perm patterns also known as?

- 3. What is the process of rotating or revolving hair around a tool from ends of the hairstrand up the base?
- 4. Zonal perms are also known as what?
- 5. What determines the size and shape of new curl configuration?
- 7. What type of perm is gentler to the hair?