

Name: _____

Chemistry the Safe Way

Across

3. Is found in many household cleaners.
5. One exposure to this substance could kill you or cause serious or permanent damage.
10. Dangerous situation.
11. An example is chlorine.
14. A chemical that is used to make foam products such as cups and packing material.

15. It kills bacteria in drinking water and swimming pools.

Down

1. Workplace Hazardous Materials Information System.
2. People could die from these diseases or illnesses.
4. Is an example of an acid.
6. A chemical that changes one colour when mixed with an acid and another when mixed with a base.

7. These materials might react violently and cause an explosion or a fire, or produce toxic gases when exposed to light, heat, vibrations, or extreme temperatures.

8. Material Safety Data Sheet

9. Swallowed.

12. A skin irritant.

13. Exposure to this poisonous substance could cause irritation.