

Chemotherapy Drugs

Across

- 1. Indicated for Multiple Myeloma given D1,2,8,9,15 and 16
- 5. Injection given in abdomen for nausea 30 minutes prior to chemotherapy.
- 9. If you push this drug too fast it causes "ants in the pants."

10. A taxane that causes nails to become discolored(purple) and sometimes they fall off.

11. A chemotherapy that is given over 10 minutes. Vitamin B12 should be given 1 week prior to receiving.

12. A IVIG that has recently become a shortage

Down

2. A injection given for ITP

3. A milky yellow colored injection given for nausea with chemotherapy

4. A On body injector that is applied to arm or abdomen.

6. Injection given for Anemia. Hgb. must be 10.0 or greater.

7. Chemotherapy that is also called the "Red Devil."

8. Made from a Periwinkle tree.