

Chemotherapy and BRM

Across

- 6. Folic acid antagonism
- 8. _____ is based on how closely tumor cells resemble normal cells in their structure and maturity
- 9. A natural part of the immune system such as natural killer cells
- 10. Patient is at great risk for bleeding

Down

- 1. Only pyrimidine antagonist available in oral form

- 2. Can be recognized by the suffix "MAB" in the generic name.
- 3. Disease modifying antirheumatic arthritis drugs
- 4. How long it takes for a tumor to double in size
- 5. Drugs which would be used to treat anemia caused by cancer treatment
- 7. Chemotherapy is most effective against a highly _____ tumor.

Word Bank

- | | | |
|---------------------|-----------------|----------------|
| Monoclonal antibody | DMARDs | Proliferative |
| Interleukins | Differentiation | Methotrexate |
| Thrombocytopenia | Capecitabine | Erythropoietic |
| Doubling time | | |