

Name: _____

Date: _____

Child Development

Across

2. The area of development that allows children to learn and understand

7. The area of development that looks at feelings

8. The name of single syllable sounds made by babies that are 4-6 months old

13. The form of play where children play next to each other but by themselves

14. The second stage in emotional development

15. The first stage in emotional development

16. The form of play where children interact with each other

17. The first sounds a baby makes

19. The area of development that deals with body movement

20. Second stage of cognitive development

Down

1. First stage of cognitive development

3. Third stage of cognitive development

4. Fourth stage of cognitive development

5. The area development of hearing, making and understanding sounds

6. The third stage in emotional development

9. Skills that require whole body movement and involve the core muscles of the body

10. A significant stage in the development of something

11. Skills that involve the use of the smaller muscle of the hands

12. The form of play where children imagine people or situations

18. The area of development that deals with responses to interactions with people