

Citizenship, Government, & Elections

Across

- 3. a strong party organization that can control political appointments
4. a geographic area that contains a specific number of voters
6. the votes cast by individual voters in a presidential election
11. a person who is nominated for an election.
14. a matter of debate or dispute
15. a number that is more than 50 percent of the total
16. the process of voting in an election.

17. a political system in which only one party is allowed

19. the most votes among all those running for a political office

21. the percentage of eligible voters who actually vote

22. legislature to select the president and vice president

Down

1. the declared policy of a political party or group.

2. a political party that challenges the two major parties

5. the right to vote

7. to record or enroll formally

8. short for political action committee

9. a special election in which citizens can vote to remove a public official from office

10. a series of statements expressing the party's principles, beliefs, and positions on election issues

12. to select the candidates for each party

13. The democratic party animal

18. a way for citizens to vote on state or local laws

20. the list of candidates for which you cast your vote