

Civil War Vocab

Across

2. An action taken by the military in order to prevent traffic from entering and leaving an area.
4. Information that can be false or misleading, but is meant to encourage or support a certain cause.
6. Slaves who have escaped and ran away.
10. The daughter of an abolitionist minister, as well as the author of a book addressing the moral issues of slavery, called "Uncle Tom's Cabin".

11. A senator of Illinois, who urged the Kansas-Nebraska Act in 1854.
12. A senator of South Carolina that did not agree with the Missouri Compromise.
15. A Kentucky senator, sometimes called "The Great Compromiser", who worked on the Missouri Compromise.
16. A policy in which the people choose and vote on important issues.

Down

1. An antislavery settler from Connecticut who lead an attack on Harper's Ferry.

3. A senator of Massachusetts who wanted an end to bitter sectionalism.
5. A type of law that puts military in charge and suspends the rights from citizens.
7. Withdraw from the Union.
8. A type of warship that is covered with protective iron plates.
9. Slaves states that did not secede.
13. When a person is killed, wounded, or goes missing in an action.
14. Having no favor of either side.

Word Bank

blockade secede border states casualty

John C. Calhoun propaganda
Harriet Beecher Stowe
John Brown

popular sovereignty
Henry Clay
Stephen Douglas martial law

Daniel Webster fugitives ironclad neutral