

Name: _____

Date: _____

Climate change

Across

4. Glaciers accumulate snow, which over time becomes compressed into ice.
6. describes a process or result generated by human beings.
7. refers to nanometer, one billionth of a meter or a hundred-thousandth of a millimeter.
8. is a gas produced through reactions between nitrous oxides (NOX) and volatile organic compounds
9. are renewable fuels derived from biological materials,

Down

1. are substances released into the air and are measured by their concentrations,
2. is a configuration of molecules and an elemental building block of all organisms on Earth.
3. are small suspended particles in a gas.
5. also called a micrometer, is one millionth of a meter, or a thousandth of a millimeter.
10. are chemical substances containing free ions that conduct electricity.