

Clinical

Across

2. A treatment in which medication is delivered directly into the body.
 4. An ongoing medical condition that can be managed through medical intervention or lifestyle changes such as diet and exercise.
 9. This stage of a clinical trial is performed after the pre-clinical phase. Its purpose is to assess the safety of a new medication or treatment.
 11. A medicine or substance which has a physiological effect on the body.
 12. Evidence from the first reported clinical trial linked a disease commonly known to affect poorly nourished sailors to _____ consumption.
 13. A qualitative and quantitative test performed on a urine sample.

14. A research committee that approves, monitors, and reviews human subject research.
 15. A medical procedure performed to detect or monitor disease.
 17. A specialty in medicine that focuses on the treatment and diagnosis of rheumatic diseases.
 18. This is the stage of a clinical trial that is performed to determine the effectiveness of the drug or treatment.
 19. A key protein involved the functioning of your immune system.
Down
 1. The lead researcher of a clinical trial.
 3. A cutting edge scientific study performed to evaluate the effectiveness of a new drug, treatment, or procedure.

5. An investigation performed to test ideas, establish facts, and make new discoveries and advancements.
 6. The famous Scottish physician that we commemorate on International Clinical Trials Day due to his involvement in the first known clinical trial.
 7. This describes a disease which develops when your own immune system attacks your healthy cells.
 8. Moral principles and judgments that apply to the practice of medicine.
 10. A surgeon aboard the HMS Salisbury in 1747 initiated the first known clinical trial with intent to treat this disease.
 16. A type of study in which information about the test is unknown to help reduce the chance of bias.

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------------|----------------|------------|------------------------|
| Clinical trial | Medical ethics | James Lind | Autoimmune |
| Rheumatology | Phase one | Blinded | Principal Investigator |
| Urinalysis | Research | Scurvy | Chronic illness |
| Infusion therapy | Test | Citrus | Phase two |
| IRB | Drug | Antibody | |