

Name: _____

Cognitive Crossword Part 1

Across

2. This type of memory is the recollections of “events” that never actually occurred
4. This is the study of speech sounds
8. This is the smallest unit of language
9. People who have memory impairments such as long term memory loss suffer from _____.
10. A sentence is structured by it's _____.
11. What is an an organized framework for routine events?

Down

1. Recalling the classroom you were in when you heard about 9/11 is an example of this type of memory

3. Sally did not remember her father murdering her best friend until 17 years after it happened. This is an example of what type of memory.

5. Individuals respond faster to familiar types rather than unfamiliar types because of this effect (Ex: Horse for the concept “mammal”, rather than platypus for “mammal”)

6. Sentences in different languages are lead by this _____ or a system of rules that produce actual or well-formed entities

7. When exposed to one word (Dog), an individual is able to recognition a related word (Wolf) because they are in the same category (animal). This is an example of _____ Priming.