

Collection 7

Across

4. The repetition of stressed and unstressed syllables
7. Words or phrases that describe one thing in terms of another and are not meant literally
8. Two, consecutive rhyming lines
9. Long narrative poems, usually passed down by word of mouth, that tell about a hero or somebody that embodies the values of the culture
10. Language that appeals to our senses
18. A comparison of two unlike things using the words like or as
19. Sound of words in the poem rhyme perfectly
20. Repeated vowel sounds
22. Rhyming words are inside of the line
25. A song or songlike poem that tells a story

26. A poem for someone who has died
27. Specific type of lyric poem that is always 14 lines long and usually has a particular type of meter.
28. Words whose sound imitates or suggest their meaning
29. Poems that tell stories
30. Poets put parts of their sentences in reverse order from what people are used to

Down

1. A regular patten of stressed and unstressed syllables
2. Words that sound the same
3. Poems that express the personal thoughts or feelings of the poet or speaker
5. Sounds of the words in the poem almost rhyme
6. When poets carry a metaphor over several lines or all throughout the poem

11. A kind of metaphor where nonhuman or inanimate things are described with human or lifelike qualities
12. Poems that do not follow a regular meter or rhyme scheme
13. A comparison of two unlike things
14. The poem's narrator
15. Rhyming words are at the end of the line
16. Poems are written in _____ instead of sentences
17. Poems are written in _____ instead of paragraphs
21. Something that has meaning in itself and can also stand for something else
23. The repetition of consonant sounds in several words that are close together
24. A long, lyric poem that was traditionally written to celebrate a famous person or lofty idea