

College

Across

- 2. What do colleges try to learn based on your extracurricular activities?
- 4. Total amount of grade points divided by the total number of credit hours attempted
- 7. Does someone with a low GPA but gets higher have a greater or less chance of being accepted than one who has a high GPA but then gets lower?
- 10. To how many years ago has SAT scores today carried more weight than?
- 11. Can range from 0.0 to 4.0

- 13. The amount of 4-year colleges that accepts more than 75% applicants
- 15. Helps students show off their best qualifications
- 16. Test that offers national-merit scholarships

Down

- 1. Money offered to high scoring PSAT competitors
- 3. What are SAT/ACT test scores used for?
- 5. A top factor of transfer applications

- 6. The amount of 4-year colleges that accepts less than 25% of applicants
- 8. What is offered to someone qualified for national merit?
- 9. A test of a student's academic skills, used for admission to US colleges. Includes reading, writing, and math portions
- 12. Starting an entrepreneurs club is an example of what?
- 14. Abbreviation of American College Testing. Includes English, Math, Social Studies, and Science

Word Bank

Academic Performance	Greater	Leadership	400 colleges
Overall GPA	Character	GPA	100 colleges
15	act	National-Merit scholarships	SAT
Money	Extracurriculars	PSAT	Overall GPA