

Name: _____

Date: _____

College Application Terms L. Marsh 2

Across

- 3. If an applicant qualifies based on FAFSA information, the U.S. government pays for any interest accrued during college and gives a loan grace period after college graduate
- 6. Is awarded when a student completes his/ her four-year college coursework and requirements
- 9. The terms "university" can represent four-years post-secondary schools
- 10. Primarily offer degrees in undergraduate and graduate programs that focus on fine and performing arts, business or engineering

Down

- 1. Universities that offer advanced degrees award graduate degrees upon completion

2. Some colleges offer a wide time frame rather than a specific deadline date for students to submit their application and receive acceptance status

4. Some colleges / universities require students to submit their final transcripts and discipline records at the end of their senior year in high school

5. Colleges issue "acceptances", "denials".

7. Most college / universities require essays as part of the application.

8. Are typically schools that offer two-year degrees in specific employment-preparation skills such as computer technology, culinary arts, and health care