

College and Careers

Across

3. must take charge of your finances-- some items will need to be award of: travel, eating out, entertainment, clothing, phone bills, laundry, toiletries.

5. Based on a major

8. few are granted to talented students

11. good for cash, found everywhere, must keep track of withdraws and some banks hefty fees

14. When you have narrowed down choices for colleges you should consult a

16. Based on grades and test scores

18. The largest source of grants

19. Based on need

Down

1. chamber of commerce, corporations, community groups

2. based on religious membership

4. drama, speech, etc.

6. are not based on need, the negative side of this is that the interest on the loan is accrued during all of your time in college so it will cost you more

7. working on campus to help pay for tuition

9. can overspend, charged interest

10. Every student should fill out one of these

12. advantage- easier to handle and usually accepted. Disadvantage: need to keep track of your purchases-- could overspend

13. armed service grant

15. One way to help finance education

17. advantage- taken everywhere, spend it and it is gone, no chance to overspend. Disadvantage- should not carry an huge amount, could be stolen, not sure how much to withdraw.