

Name: _____

Date: _____

Colloquium

Across

3. aims to measure the financial, social, and environmental performance of a business over time

7. to convert waste into reusable material

10. an area of land that has been drained by a river or other body of water

11. gradual warming in the overall temperature of the earth's surface caused by the greenhouse effect

12. the cultivation of a single crop in a given area

13. contamination of the air, water, or soil with harmful materials that can hurt humans and the environment

14. the ability to be resilient, cope with change, and be maintained at a certain rate or level

Down

1. a way to measure the impact that a particular human product has on the environment

2. large-scale, intensive production of crops and animals, often involving chemical fertilizers and herbicides on crops

4. preserving, protecting, or restoring natural resources for future generations

5. formed by natural processes, such as oil, coal, and natural gas

6. the study of the relationship of living things (humans, plants, animals) with each other and their environment

8. a wastewater treatment system that uses sunlight, bacteria, plants, and animals to purify water

9. the act of cutting down or burning trees in an area

Word Bank

triple bottom line

sustainability

ecology

conservation

recycle

living machines

life cycle analysis

industrialized agriculture

pollution

fossil fuels

monoculture

global warming

deforestation

watershed