

Colonial Georgia

Across

- 2. He had a friend named Robert Castell who died in a debtor's prison because his cellmate had smallpox. This led him to want to create a debtor's colony.
- 6. They had a reputation for being great soldiers.
- 10. The first royal governor.
- 11. She was born to an Indian mother and an English father. She translated between the Yamacraw Indians and the English.
- 13. When the Spanish caught a British Captain they decided to send a warning to other smugglers. They punished him by cutting off his

- 14. an economic system in which colonies send raw materials to the mother country in order to improve their economy
 - 15. a legal document granting permission to start a colony for philanthropy, economics, and defense
 - 16. ended the Spanish threat to Georgia's survival as a colony.
- Down
- 1. People grow this not for personal use but to sell for a profit
 - 3. they were unsatisfied with the Trustee rules specifically the ban of slavery and rum.
 - 4. the third and final royal governor
 - 5. a gubernatorial official, appointed by a king or other monarch

- 7. the city that overlooked the river, was 16 miles away from the ocean, and had a navigable harbor. Oglethorpe and William Bull carefully designed this city.
- 8. a person who is given responsibility for acting on behalf of an organization
- 9. the leader of the Yamacraw tribe. _____ and his people believed there would be future opportunities from allying with the British.
- 12. A group of German-speaking settlers from present-day Austria arrived in the colony in 1734. They were forced to leave their country because they were Protestants.