Colors and Markings

Across

1. The _____ color comes from a Dun overlay on a black.

3. a yellowish gray with dark points

5. The _____ gene dilutes the base colors chestnut, bay and black. When it dilutes palomino or buckskin, it gets even lighter.

9. _____ is used to describe a spotted horse of any breed.

13. A_____ _____ has a chestnut base color with white hairs mixed in and red or dark red/brown points. They can have red or blonde mane and tail.

15. The _____ coat is made up of white hairs and hairs with color in them, can be light or dark.

16. _____ has white spots that never cross over the top of the back, neck or rump.

17. A _____ _____ is a dark base color with white hairs mixed in; has dark points and black undertones.

19. _____ _____ coloring is gray with distinct white marks splattered throughout the coat. When a dapple gray has black points, it can be called a blue roan as well. (two words)

20. lighter colored round spots on the coat.

21. has a black coat and black points, most have white skin.

Down

2. a golden color with a white mane and tail. The _____ is considered a color breed.

4. _____ has white spots that cross over the top line.

6. An _____ is a spotted or speckled horse often with roaning. It is both a color and a breed of horse. They have spotted coats, mottled skin, white sclera and striped hooves.

7. a light reddish/yellow color. The mane and tail can be blonde or same as the body. In Europe it would be called a light chestnut.

8. A black with black skin is called a _____ black.

10. any reddish brown or dark brown color with black points

11. The color is more like chocolate, not reddish.

12. _____ on a horse is sometimes called varnish, occurs when white hairs are mixed in with the base coat color.

14. like a buckskin with a dorsal stripe sometimes accompanied by a shoulder stripe or zebra stripes on the legs.

18. basically red it can vary from light to dark. They have no black points.

Word Bank

Tabiano	Black	Sorrel	Red Roan	Gray	Overo
Buckskin	Grullo	True	Appaloosa	Blue Roan	Roan
Palomino	Dapple Gray	Brown	Chestnut	Dapples	Cream
Dun	Pinto	Bay			