

Name: _____

Commerce

Across

2. A highly trained legal professional who presides over District, Supreme and High Courts.

7. Intentionally causing harm to someone or threatening to cause harm to someone.

8. The lawyer whose role is to assist an accused win a case.

9. A group of people chosen randomly from the community to determine the guilt or non-guilt of the accused in serious criminal law matters.

10. A lawyer or police officer whose role is to convince the court that the accused has committed the crime with which he or she has been charged.

Down

1. Provide a major role in resolving disputes.

3. An agreement between two or more parties that is legally enforceable.

4. A person who testifies or gives evidence in a court of law

5. A verbal or written notice issued by the police to a person who admits to committing a minor offence.

6. The party accused of wrongdoing.