

Common Themes in Literature

Across

- 6. Characters that trust one another and remain loyal throughout the story
- 7. characters that are brave enough to overcome a fearful or difficult situation or accept a challenge
- 8. characters that learn that it is best to always tell the truth
- 9. characters that are friendly, generous, and considerate of others' feelings
- 10. characters that care for and help those who are suffering

Down

- 1. characters accept and respect the differences and beliefs of others
- 2. characters that find clever ways to solve their problems
- 3. characters avoid trouble by being prepared and ready for any situation
- 4. characters that work together to complete a task or reach a goal
- 5. characters that keep trying and never give up even when things do not work out at first