

Communicable and Noncommunicable Diseases

Across

3. a disease for which biological agents or their products are the cause and that is transmissible

5. the killing of commonable disease agents outside the host

6. a disease for which the reservoir resides in animal populations

13. susceptible organism to a disease

14. the spread of cancer cells to distant parts of the body by a circulatory system

15. a disease for which humans are the only known reservoir

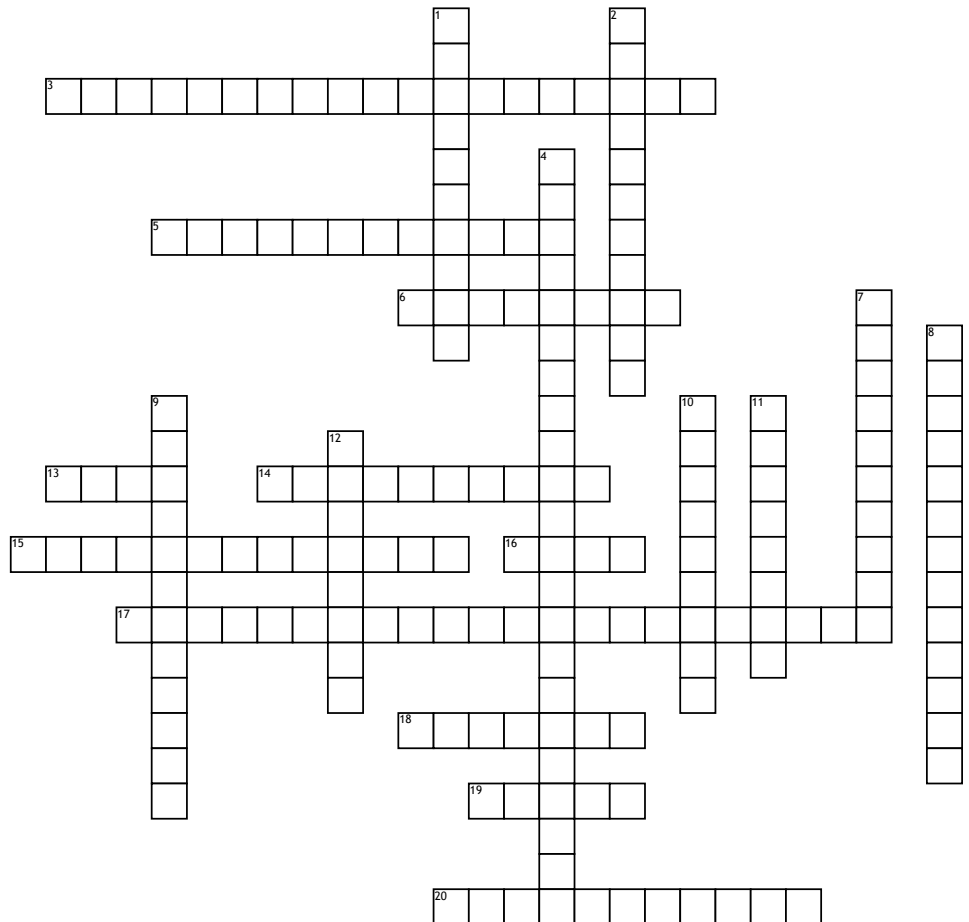

16. a person who has the disease

17. fifth leading cause of death in the U.S.

18. one who is well but not infected and is capable of serving as a source of infection

19. element that must be present for a disease to occur

20. refers to the ability of a biological agent to enter and grow in a host

Down

1. planning for and taking action to forestall the onset of a disease

2. the complete elimination or uprooting of a disease.

4. illness is one that cannot be transmitted from one person to another

7. limitation of freedom of movement of those who have been exposed to a disease and may be incubating it

8. an infectious disease agent's ability to produce the disease

9. efforts to control a disease in progress

10. the separation of infected persons from those who are susceptible

11. nonliving objects by which communicable agents are transferred to a host

12. cause