

Communicable diseases

1. Infections occurring more than 48 hours after admission to hospital
 2. One of the oldest diseases known to humankind
 3. symptoms include weight loss, anorexia, malaise, worsening cough
 4. this disease is responsible for 50-76% of all liver cancers
 5. pt is asymptomatic despite active replication of the virus during this period
 6. type of precaution implemented to control spread of hepatitis A and E
 7. pathogens that are spread through needle sticks or cuts by contaminated sharp objects
 8. what does the I stand for in HIV?
 9. what the second P stands for in PEP
 10. MRSA stands for methicillin-resistant staphylococcus _____
 11. one of the few antibiotics still effective against MRSA
 12. best way of preventing spread of infection
- A. tuberculosis
 - B. incubation
 - C. hepatitis c
 - D. hand washing
 - E. immune
 - F. vancomycin
 - G. nosocomial
 - H. prophylaxis
 - I. hepatitis c
 - J. bloodborne
 - K. aureus
 - L. enteric