

Communication Chapter 16 Crossword

Across

2. The production of syllables or words according to some accepted standards.

3. Using active verbs, strong verbs, figures of speech, and imagery.

7. Phases that weaken your sentence.

8. The substitution of a name for a title with which it's closely associated.

10. The use of a word or sentence whose literal meaning is the opposite of the message actually conveyed.

13. Phases that have lost their novelty and part of their meaning through overuse.

15. Interruptions in the flow of speech.

16. The speed at which you speak.

17. Imagery to create words 'pictures' of people or objects.

18. The technical vocabulary of a specialized field.

19. The attribution of human characteristics to inanimate objects.

20. The relative loudness or softness of your voice.

Down

1. Imagery to describe sounds.

4. The process of evaluating a speech.

5. Results from movements of the speech organs as they modify and interrupt the air stream from the lungs.

6. The use of a part of an object to stand for the whole object.

9. Imagery to let the audience feel the temperature and texture of the object you're talking about.

11. Compares two unlike things by stating that one thing.

12. The use of extreme exaggeration.

14. Language used by special groups but considered impolite or not proper.