

Community Centered Model

Across

4. An example of interprofessional community care is.

5. Refers to community facilities that provide care to general public, based on individual needs.

8. Healthy smiles program for children under the age of 17.

9. Provide locations for health care services in the heart of the community to ensure all individuals have the ability to attend.

10. Constantly changing based on issues in today's society.

11. Established to remove financial barriers and to increase good health within the community.

13. Reduces barriers for access to health care

Down

1. Community care facilities include:

2. Sick funds.

3. Established to remove financial barriers and to increase good health within the community.

6. Provide community dental care in two ways: 1. Free dental care for children up to the age of 19 2. Dental program for adults that are eligible for free care.

7. Every member of the interprofessional team were residents of the community, therefore promoting strengthened community action and supportive environments.

12. The importance of each dental procedure is how patients are treated, Wait lists are often long.