

Complications of Total Hip Replacement

Across

1. A blood clot in the lower extremities is called a
 5. To prevent this complication you should not bend at the waist greater than 90 degrees
 6. What food should you avoid specifically while taking warfarin?
 8. Increased drainage, foul odour, persistent fever, and increased pain at the surgical site indicate
 11. Pain unrelated to the surgical site, swelling and redness on a lower extremity indicate

13. The easiest action to prevent DVT is

14. What nutritional supplement helps with your immune system
 15. This complication can be prevented through eating a balanced diet and increasing calories as needed

Down

2. These special stockings may help prevent DVT for 5-6 weeks after surgery
 3. If you are having trouble breathing, have a cough, or sudden onset of chest pain you should

4. If you think you may have a DVT you SHOULDNT do what

7. What nutritional supplement helps with your blood cell formation
 9. This is a potential complication of DVT that involves facial drooping, arm weakness, slurred speech and relies on time to call an ambulance
 10. It is important to keep your surgical dressing ____.
 12. What should be done with rugs in your home while you are healing