

Computer science crossword

Across

- 3. What is a service called that allows you to access the internet via search engine
- 4. What component is used to access a certain amount of data quickly
- 6. What is a type of data storage which spins using an actuator
- 7. What is a type of storage like a HDD that uses flash memory chips instead

- 9. How many bits are in a byte

- 10. What do you use to make applications on computers
- 11. What is a a HTTP
- 12. What do you allocate in an "Int Variable in a programming language" (e.g. int age = 54;)
- 13. What is a cyber-attack which prohibits anyone accessing or getting data from a sight

Down

- 1. What is the name of a large storage that can send and receive data easily
- 2. What is the most common thing for a DDOS to overwhelm in a server
- 5. What is the fancy name for a self-replicating piece of code
- 8. What method of attack can you use to get private information from a website that uses bad or poorly written SQL code