

Computer software systems

Across

3. type of application software that is mass produced copyrighted and sold at retailers
 5. NMP is known as _____ Management Programs
 6. an example of software sold at retailers is m... office
 7. copyrighted software distributed at no cost for a trial period
 8. a type of system software that performs specific task usually related to managing a computer its devices or its programs
 9. when a company asks programmers to tailor make a program it is known to be...

10. DBMS is known as _____ Management system

11. the part of the software with which you interact is the user...

Down

1. Type of software where programs are designed to perform tasks associated with direct control and management of computer hardware
 2. type of system where program allows end users to accomplish certain tasks or help other programs meet the information processing needs of end users
 4. a copyrighted software that is provided at no cost to a user of by the company that retains all rights to software