

Concept Crossword

Across

4. Someone who is in charge of a group, organization or country. (Maori)
5. To own a certain piece of land. (Maori)
7. An area, especially part of a country not always fixed boundaries. (Maori)

8. One or more people moving to a new country in order to find better living conditions

9. Someone who is very skillful in a particular area. (Maori)

11. Stopping people using or taking too much of one or more things. (Maori)

12. the action or process of adapting or being adapted.

Down

1. To keep a certain rate or level on something.

2. Clearing a wide area of trees or bush.

3. A person who defends or protects something or someone. (Maori)

6. Using up all of the resources or supply

10. human beings in general or considered collectively. (Maori)