

Conflict of Interest Crossword

Across

3. An RD works in a DEC. One of the Rexall reps has offered to bring in food for all staff to participate in a dinner 'n learn about the company's nutritional products. What should the RD do?

5. The RD tells his clients the nature of his research trial and fulfilling the study recruitment quota for his research. He _____ the nature of the conflict to his clients.

6. This principle is a helpful method to manage conflict of interest situations

7. It is one of the essential components for the quality nutrition care

9. Dietetic services should always be client-centred and based on _____.

10. This may remove or significantly reduce the potential for a conflict of interest.

Down

1. It is the first step in the conflict of interest framework

2. Telling clients that choosing other products will not affect the quality of dietetic services to them is providing _____ to them.

4. To avoid conflict of interest, dietetic services should provide _____ to clients, not the RD.

8. An RD's friend is starting up a clinic. To drum up business, the friend offers to pay the RD $15.00 for each new client that the RD refers. What should the RD do?