

Congress

Across

8. a legislative power of Congress
 9. the Republicans in both houses of Congress today
 10. a population count
 12. head/chairman of the Senate when the Vice President is not in the Senate
 13. the word to describe the free postage/ mailing privilege held by members of Congress
 14. projects added to a law that benefit a small section of the country

17. a committee that has members from both houses of Congress

18. when members of Congress are trying to assist their constituents with a problem

Down

1. the Democrats in both houses of Congress today
 2. the head of the House of Representatives
 3. these powers are found in Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution

4. people who are represented by members of Congress

5. a two house legislature

6. another name for the necessary and proper clause

7. a permanent committee

11. You have to "read between the lines" to find these powers

15. a law making something a crime after you did "it"

16. people hired by interest groups to influence government