

Connecticut Children's Blood Administration

Across

- 3. What is an indication for Fresh Frozen Plasma?
- 6. Blood can be administered through a size _____ guage or higher Peripheral IV.
- 8. stop the transfusion is there is any sign of transfusion _____
- 9. The blood transfusion MUST be completed within _____ hours of recieving from the blood bank
- 12. Non-NICU type & screens are good for how many hours after collection?
- 14. obtained within 30 minutes of initiating blood
- 16. What is the rate in ml/kg/hr for the first 15 minutes of a blood transfusion?
- 17. blood is programmed in the pump as a _____ infusion

18. Upon visually inspecting the blood, call the blood bank if there is a _____ appearance.

- 19. _____ orders must contain product type, indication for use, rate of transfusion, and number of units.
- 20. What is needed to proceed with a transfusion when the patient has a fever?

Down

- 1. In emergency situations, O-Negative, un-cross matched blood may be ordered and released from _____?
- 2. Location of the Blood Bank
- 4. PRBC transfusion must be completed in _____ hours and any unused blood must be discarded after this amount of time

5. Once arriving to the unit, the blood products must be initiated within how many minutes?

- 7. if this device has any red in the center, the blood is not acceptable to transfuse
- 10. PRBCs are infused _____ during the first 15 minutes of infusion to observe for signs of transfusion reaction
- 11. If a transfusion is ordered and the patient is Jehovah Witness, who should be notified?
- 13. Informed consent, including risk, benefits, and alternatives are good for how many days?
- 15. Example of a unique patient identifier