

Connecting Ethics to Justice

Across

- 2. Insight or knowledge gained by thinking; the process of perceiving something
8. Private or secret information
10. Conforming to accepted standards of conduct
11. The proper administration of the law; fair and equitable treatment of all individuals under the law
13. Aboveboard, bound by duty; commendable or conscientious

- 14. Not partial or biased; treating or affecting all equally

Down

- 1. Conforming to the standards of a profession; having or showing great skill or expertise
3. Conforming to the law; required or permitted by law; not forbidden by law
4. The quality or state of being worthy of esteem or respect; inherent nobility and worth
5. capable of being used or seen by all; capable of being understood by all

- 6. Steadfast adherence to a strict moral or ethical code
7. The power of a Judge or public official to make decisions on various matters based on his/her opinion within general legal guidelines
9. a predisposition of preconceived opinion that prevents a person from impartially evaluating facts presented
12. Assured reliance on the character, ability, strength or truth of someone in which confidence is placed