

Constitution Crossword

Across

2. This part of the legislative branch can refuse to ratify a treaty.
9. This concept involves a government dividing its power between the national government and state government.
12. After Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected as president on four separate occasions, the 22nd amendment was passed, which limited the president to two _____.
13. This current Speaker of the House ran as the Vice President to Mitt Romney during the 2012 election.
15. This part of the legislative branch can vote impeach a president. (abbr.)
17. Following the Civil War, the 13th amendment was passed, banning this.
18. The way a state runs their schools is a _____ power.
20. Although this would deepen the debt at that moment, the Concurrent Powers have the ability to borrow _____.

22. Once an amendment is proposed by $\frac{2}{3}$ of congress, $\frac{3}{4}$ of state _____ must ratify it in order for it to become part of our constitution.
23. According to fourth amendment, searches and seizures on private property are not allowed unless a person has this _____.
24. This branch may call special sessions of congress.
25. Everyone has the right to this if they are accused of a felony.
- Down
1. This head of the judiciary branch becomes the president of the senate during presidential impeachment.
3. Although there are no requirements to be one of these, the 9 people who are this often have law degrees from ivy league colleges.
4. In order to be a member of the House of Representatives or Senate, you must be a _____ for at least 9 years.
5. This branch of government can rule certain laws and executive acts to be unconstitutional.

6. If a person wants to run for president, they must be born in _____.(abbr.)
7. This New Jersey representative recently beat Scott Garrett in the last election from New Jersey's fifth district.
8. This branch can override a president's veto.
10. If $\frac{2}{3}$ of state legislatures request Congress to call a Constitutional Convention, an _____ is proposed.
11. This person can pardon federal offenders
14. In 1870, the 15th amendment gave former slaves the right to _____.
16. The second amendment gives its citizens the right to _____ arms.
19. An example of this type of power involves establishing a post office.
21. This current New Jersey senator was born in Bergen County.