

Context clues

Across

4. Jane was fuming because of the teacher's supercilious attitude, but I was modest when I left the classroom.
6. It was an egregious mistake to paint our office and bad idea to paint the car yesterday.
8. The local paper is too provincial for me, just like when Jake brought his narrow-minded paper as well.
9. The League of Women Voters is not partisan cause she has no supporter, fans or any followers.
10. He compelled the wealthy to share their riches with the indigent and helpless to make them their equals in respect

Down

1. I expect her to crumble or surrender since she's very capitulate.
2. Ted, always the flatterer in this school was the sycophant to all his classmates.
3. making her seem more urbane makes me seem more boorish at school.
5. John's view of life is parochial and does not include anything outside of his own happiness
7. The gray eyes held a glint of something more than humor, but his lips twisted into a satirical smile.