

Contract Law Word Puzzle

Across

- 3. contracts that involve terms for both good and services
- 7. If one party to a contract uses any form of unfair coercion to induce another party to enter into or modify a contract
- 8. is a remedy designed to prevent unjust enrichment of one party in an agreement.
- 9. One that is regularly engaged in the sale of a particular good.
- 10. seller must tender the goods in a manner that matches the contract terms in every respect
- 12. one who commits a tort.

- 14. when the buyer agrees to purchase all or up to an agreed amount of what the buyer needs for a given period.
- 15. When one party has engaged in conduct that meets the standards for misrepresentation but that party has knowledge that the representation is not true.
- 16. a civil wrong where on party has acted, or failed to act, and that action/inaction causes a loss to be suffered by another part.

- 2. If the victim is a public figure, such as a candidate for political office or a celebrity, the defamation must have been committed with malice or reckless disregard for the truth.
- 4. created when a merchant offers to sell goods, in a writing that promises the offer will be held open for a certain time period.
- 5. an accidental (without willful intent) event that causes harm to another party.
- 6. is the law governing which contracts must be in writing in order to enforceable
- 11. where the offeror revokes (withdraws) the offer prior to acceptance.
- 13. The giving up of a right that you legally possess.

Down

- 1. Broad underlying requirement that must be met to form enforceable contract.

Word Bank

- Tort
- Merchant
- Merchants firm offer
- Perfect tender rule
- Duress
- Tortfeasor

- Public Figure Standard
- Statute of frauds
- Forbearance
- Fraudulent Misrepresentation
- Revocation

- Requirements Contract
- Hybrid Contracts
- Mutual Assent
- Negligence
- Restitution