

Name: _____

Corporations in the 19th century

Across

4. A word used to describe a company that has too much power to the point where all other opponents of theirs have been excluded.
6. John Rockefeller was the _____ man in the 19th century.
7. A form of labor movements that was more violent than a strike.
8. Farmers used _____ to transport their crops across the country.

11. A method of growth where one company merges or buys out another company so they can control the market.
12. Poor working conditions and low wages led to a lot of _____.
13. Working conditions for workers was often very _____.
14. _____ were used to fix machines because they could fit in small spaces easily.

Down

1. Who created the Standard Oil Company?

2. A word used to describe owners who use corrupt methods to become rich.
3. A lot of the workers were children, women, and _____.
5. The hiring of women and the invention of the textile mill led to the term _____.
9. Technological improvements made _____ workers less of a demand.
10. Which section of the country grew to become an industrial power house and have numerous of corporations?

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------|------------------------|------------|------------------|
| skilled | children | immigrants | robber barons |
| strikes | Horizontal Integration | bad | John Rockefeller |
| railroads | richest | mill girls | north |
| riot | monopoly | | |