

Correctional Corssword Puzzle

Across

1. an officer of an organization or society responsible for its records and correspondence
3. the field of study that deals mainly with methods of teaching and learning in schools
5. to set free from restraining, confinement or servitude
7. to have power over
9. one having care or charge of something
10. one who holds a position of authority or command in the armed forces
11. a person confined

18. the upkeep of property or equipment

19. something substituted in place of what is wrong

20. the grounds of a building or group of buildings

21. greater in number, quantity or extent

22. the separation for special treatment or observation of individuals or items from a larger group

Down

2. an amount of work used in education in calculating students credits

4. a one room dwelling occupied by a solitary person

6. a device that restricts movement

8. a conditional release of a prisoner serving an indeterminate or unexpired sentence

12. something owned or possessed

13. to convey from one person, place or situation to another

14. a line or strip bounding or protecting an area

15. a body of persons usually employed

16. having always the same form, manner or degree; not varying or variable

17. person appointed as a substitute with power to act