

Cosmetology Chapter 5 Terms

Across

4. Process that completely destroys all microbial life

9. Disinfectants that kill bacteria that causes tuberculosis

11. Pus-forming bacteria that grows in clusters & cause pustules and boils

13. Parasitic submicroscopic particle that infects and resides in cells of organisms

15. Superficial fungal infections caused by dermatophytes that commonly affects bearded areas of face & neck or scalp

16. Pus-forming bacteria that are arranged in curved lines resembling string of beads & causes infections such as strep throat or blood poisoning

Down

1. Ringworm fungus of the foot

2. Spiral or corkscrew-shaped bacteria that causes diseases such as syphilis and lyme disease

3. An effective disinfectant in salon

5. Abbreviated SP; guidelines published by CDC that requires employees to assume all human blood and body fluids are infectious

6. Infection that affects body as a whole

7. Disease caused by bacteria that are transmitted through coughing or sneezing

8. Items that can only be used once

10. Fungal infection of scalp characterized by red papules or spots at opening of hair follicles

12. Various poisonous substances produce by some microorganisms

14. Capable of destroying viruses